

What Does Galatians 3:10 Mean?

By Moshe Schwab

Galatians 3:10 NKJV.

"For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse; for it is written, 'Cursed is everyone who does not continue in all things which are written in the book of the law, to do them.'"

Those who keep extra laws and ritual as though they are commandments are under a curse. They are disobeying the Torah where it says, "You shall not add to the word which I command you, nor take from it, that you may keep the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you;" Deuteronomy 4:2 NKJV.

It is because they are disobeying the Torah that they are cursed.

Shaul quotes Galatians 3:10 from, Deuteronomy 27:26 CJB:

"A curse on anyone who does not confirm the words of this Torah by putting them into practice."

So those who don't keep the Torah are cursed.
